Show and Shine salutes automotive history

CHROME AND COLOURFUL PAINT JOBS on antique, vintage and collector cars and trucks turned Elk Point's Main Street into a rainbow of colour on Saturday as the Elk Point Auto Club held their annual Show and Shine, with a total of 73 entries, the best in a number of years.

Review Staff

A total of 73 entries packed Main Street and overflowed onto 49 Ave. on Saturday but it was hometown exhibitor Harvey Derewynka who hauled home a quartet of trophies from the Elk Point Auto Club's 29th annual Show and Shine, including the coveted People's Choice award from Magic Pizza for his 1955 Chev truck, which also placed first in the Truck category for the Bumper to Bumper award.

Derewynka's 1927 Chev was also a winner, taking both the club-sponsored first place plaque in the Pre-1931 category and the Complete Excavation Services award for Oldest Vehicle.

Second place in the Pre-1931 group, the Mystery Man trophy, went to David Nestorowich and his 1931 Model A Ford, while second in the Truck category, sponsored by Rangeland Energy Services, went to Brian Samuel and his 1950 Ford.

Another multiple winner was Jim Hebert of Calgary, who not only collected the Furthest Away award, but also placed first in the 1932-1960s Antiques category with a spectacular 1951 MG. Second place in that category, and the Clyde Diesel Memorial plaque, went to Neil Musgrave with a 1955 Chevy.

A new category this year was the Rat Rod, with a trophy coming from Shamrock Valley Enterprises and going to Chuck Koppang for his 1942 Ford. The Rat Rod is defined as "is a style of hot rod or custom car that, in most cases, imitates (or exaggerates) the early hot rods of the 1940s, 1950s, and early 1960s," and "may appear unfinished," being built "more to drive than for show."

New mural unveiled, focuses on child development

VICKI BROOKER

A study involving a class of kindergarten students way back in 2011 was only a starting point for Elk Point's Early Childhood Development Committee Champions for Children, who proudly unveiled a massive five panel mural on Saturday, bringing the results of that study to life.

"Early in 2011, Mona McGinnis rallied us to map out how Elk Point children were developing in five areas, and we agreed to gather the data," Melanie Poulin told the crowd clustered in the parking lot north of her Play2Learn Daycare facility, as she introduced McGinnis and fellow committee members Melissa Skarsen, Tammy Klatt and Colette Poiras. The study covered an area stretching from Heinsburg in the east to Stoney Lake in the west, south to Derwent and north to the County of St. Paul border.

"We got the data and we kept our ear to the ground. Over five years, a lot happened in early childhood development," Poulin said

CLASSIC BEAUTY - this 1951 MG owned by Jim Hebert of Calgary placed first in the 1932- 1960 Antique category to win the Larry Demchuk Memorial trophy, and was also the entry from farthest away.

TIMELESS TREASURE - David Nestorowich placed second in the Pre-1931 Antique category with his 1931 Model A for the Mystery Man trophy.

HOW LOW CAN IT GO? was the question many asked about this low-slung pickup, while rumours floated around that it could rise to the occasion.

SO THAT'S A RAT ROD? All decked out with shiny brass trim, this 1940 Ford F100 was shown by Darrell Sheets of Bonnyville and even had a trunk in the back!

Show and Shine

Bill and Janet Parker took home the Empress Restaurant trophy for their 1969 GTO in the Post-1960 Antiques, while Ron Urlacher placed second for the Rem's Welding plaque with a Mustang Shelby.

In the Modified division, Arnold Adamson took first prize and the Bill Currey Memorial plaque with his 1967 Chev, while Art Lypka was second for the Signatures Collision and Frame award with his 64 Ford Fairlane.

Topping the Show category was one of the newest vehicles in the lineup, a 2014 Shelby GT 500 owned by Dan Marchuk, who took home the Knotty Boyz trophy. Second in the category and the Lakeland Realty plaque went to Pat Yakimec for his 2013 Corvette.

Larry Okerstrom and his 1967 Chevy won first place in the Convertibles, for the Elk Point Insurance plaque, with second and the Gil Garner Memorial award going to Terry McLean and a 1940 Ford.

Entrant number 39, who remains anonymous and did not come forward to claim the Sheldon Cochrane Memorial plaque, earned the most votes in the Bike and Motorcycle category. Second place and the Harold Lefebvre trophy went to Daniel Desjardins and his 2006 scooter.

The final trophy of the day, the Ed Nelson Memorial, went to an Under Restoration 1937 Dodge owned by Jerry and Cindy Germain.

In closing, Jim Hebert, a director of the Specialty Vehicle Association of Alberta (SVAA), an association of car clubs with 12 directors across the province, called for a round of applause for the Elk Point Auto Club and said shows like this "are what our organization is all about. We sit on boards to lobby against changes to regulations. We don't want inadvertent changes to legislation to take our vehicles off the road." Hebert said that while the SVAA is the overall organization, "It's the clubs that do it all," with shows like Elk Point's that bring people and business to the community.

"Maintain your cars and bring them out to shows. Let's keep a really good hobby on the road," he urged the enthusiasts.

"Whether or not you won a trophy, you're all winners," Ed Smith told the show entrants. "You made a lot of people here happy just looking at your vehicles." Next year will be the club's 30th show and shine, "and we're looking for ideas to make it really special," he added.

STARS Golf Tournament puts the 'fun' in fundraising for vital air rescue service

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Sixty golfers swung for STARS Air Rescue Service last Wednesday as Elk Point Emergency Services hosted their golf tournament at the Elk Point Golf and Country Club, with rain holding off until everyone was back in the clubhouse enjoying their steak supper and awaiting the presentation of prizes.

Elk Point Volunteer Firefighters' spokesman Robert Smith thanked all who attended for taking part in this very worthwhile fundraiser, and said the course was excellent and the service provided by the clubhouse staff was "phenomenal."

The RONA team, made up of Curtis Porcina, Robyn Moroziuk, Tyson Ballas and Dustin Yaremkevich, claimed the best score overall, with the Pain Relievers, Linda Dorey, Sandra Lorenson, Pam and Randy Ballas going up second to claim their prizes, the remaining teams following in order of finish.

Four Hole prizes were also awarded, Out of Bounds on Hole 7 to Jeffrey A., Straightest Drive to Robyn Moroziuk, Closest to the Pin off Tee on Hole 6 to Ken Dion and Longest Putt to Ryan Hahn. Several door prizes, including a much-coveted birdbath, were also up for grabs.

Becky Millar was the lucky winner of the 50-50 and donated the $290 prize back to STARS, and a silent auction also added to the funds raised to support the service, which makes many trips to Elk Point in the course of a year.

LEADERS OF THE PACK of prize winners were Curtis Porcina and Robyn Moroziuk of the RONA team, who golfed with Tyson Ballas and Dustin Yaremkevich in the STARS tournament on Wednesday. A total of 60 golfers were involved in the event, hosted each year by the Elk Point Emergency Services to support STARS Air Rescue Service.

NO PAIN, JUST PRIZES for the Pain Relievers, Pam and Randy Ballas, Sandra Lorenson and Linda Dorey, who claimed the second set of prizes at the STARS tournament.

FINISHING TOUCH - This beautiful laser cut metal sign depicting the late Pete Stafford's love for outdoor sports is the perfect finishing touch for the playground that bears his name. Numerous groups, businesses and individuals contributed funding for the revitalization of this playground, which is now ready to serve a new generation of Elk Point youngsters, and is located at the corner of Centennial Drive and 58 Avenue. The new equipment was installed in a massive weekend work bee on the weekend of May 13 20 15, with many volunteers coming out to lend a hand.

JENA COLBOURNE
Recreation Director

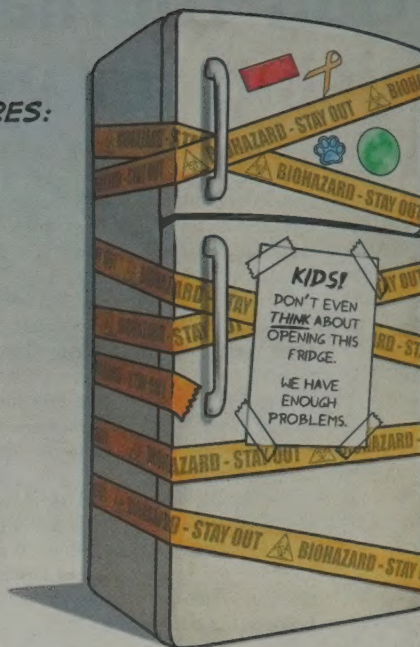

Very exciting news, the Great Elk Point Selfie Challenge 2016 has begun! You can find your scavenger list online, elkpoint.ca or on our social pages; Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. Also every week I'll be releasing a bonus location you'll only be able to get in the Elk Point Review.

We have photo packages up for grabs for the top two winners. The packages include a photo session to be used as a family, individual, baby, kids, couples, or however you'd like! Big thanks to Mindy Meger of Beauteous Images Photography and Brooke Yaremchuk of Miss B Photography. One special runner up will receive a Family Dinner thanks to Empress Family Restaurant and Lounge.

For the 2016 edition there are 10 pictures with three bonus Review pics. Contest closes June 27th at 11:59 p.m. The person with the most points will win. That's right, there's points this year. Each regular photo is worth one point. Each Review photo is worth two points. Additionally, each of the photos will have a bonus attached. Pictures can be emailed to recreation@elkpoint.ca and please write your name in the subject bar and include contact information in the email. You can submit as you go or when completed. The winner will be announced on Canada Day at 12:30 p.m.

This Week's BONUS location: Letestu Oilers Jersey with a BONUS of five points if you take your selfie in front of Mark Letestu's childhood home. Be sure to say 'Hi' to Garth and Deanna.

KITCHEN NIGHTMARES: FORT MAC EDITION

WAY BACK WHEN...

Challenges won, dreams held on to, steers and cars shown

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 7 IN...

1986

Elk Point Lions Club's Journey for Sight walk-a-thon raised over $2,300, with Denise Kissel and Madeline Foisy claiming the School Challenge trophy, Marshall Kachmar the Oil Patch Challenge and the Oldest Participant awards, Jaime Spence the Youngest Participant and Lee Wannechko and Tammy Boratynec the First Finisher awards. Water rationing was put into effect after a week of record high temperatures.

1991

Improvements were underway at the Elk Point Recreation Land, with fencing around the ball diamonds and installation of pit toilets at the campground underway, and installation of water and gas lines, construction of the Lions Club's concession booth and a playground slated for the near future. Seniors Week was off to a good start, with an interdenominational church service, entertainment by Elk Point Choral Society and a barbecue supper all part of an open house at Heritage Lodge.

1996

Peter Danyluk showed Elk Point's grand champion 4-H steer, with Monica Naber showing the reserve, while Tim Havener and George Danyluk showed the supreme and reserve champion females. The dozen graduates who made up Heinsburg's Class of 1996 chose 'Hold on to your dreams' as their theme and David Skolarchuk as their valedictorian.

2001

Michelle Leckie showed Elk Point's 4-H grand champion steer and Nichole Havener both the reserve champion steer and supreme champion heifer at Achievement Day, with Nicholas Zapesocki showing the reserve champion female. Heinsburg Community Club hosted their first-ever trail ride, with horse-drawn wagons, horseback riders, cyclists, quadders and hikers all taking part in the trip up the Iron Horse Trail.

2006

The Iron Horse Trail staging area shone as a venue for the annual Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine, with 42 entries, including five gleaming Edsels. New member Taylor Legault showed Elk Point's 4-H grand champion steer, while Robyn Ockerman showed the supreme champion female and Janice Tymofichuk showing the reserve champions in both categories.

2011

Elk Point's first-ever 4-H sheep show and sale was a crowd-pleasing added attraction at Elk Point 4-H Multi Club Achievement Day, which also featured horse, photography and craft projects along with the traditional steer show, where Taylor Robbie showed the Grand Champion, above.

Close to 60 vintage and show vehicles packed downtown Elk Point on Saturday, but the show didn't stop there, with food, home business and craft vendors, two entertainment venues, two high-stakes competitions and a pancake breakfast all adding up to fun at the first annual 'Cars, Crafts and Cuisine.'

Four Gateways Tour starts with Sasquatch hunt

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Sasquatch hunting on the banks of the North Saskatchewan River may not be the usual first step to a summer of exploring the farthest reaches of the Trans Canada Trail in Alberta, but that's just what Sheila Thompson was doing last week when she visited Heinsburg Community School.

Thompson is no stranger to that school, she taught there in 2006, when all of northern Alberta was engrossed in the Edmonton Oilers' Run for the Cup. She also is a good friend and former mentor to Heinsburg's principal, Carmen McLeod, dating back to McLeod's first year of teaching.

Thompson told a group of high school students that while 2006 was a special year for Alberta, next year, 2017, will be an even greater year for the whole of Canada, as the nation celebrates its Sesquicentennial, or 150th birthday. What would be a good present for the nation, she asked, and reminded the students they have a whole year to think about it.

A group across Canada has a great idea, she noted: the Trans Canada Trail (TCT), a trail system that reaches all three of the oceans that surrounds three sides of the nation. "The Iron Horse Trail is part of it, and we have a head start on it. My idea starts right here, today," she told them. "Here is where a lot of Alberta started, right along the trail and the North Saskatchewan River. There are 3,000 km of Trans Canada Trail in Alberta, and it starts right here."

She told the students of her plans to travel to all four gateways where the TCT enters the province during the summer and to keep a blog of her adventures en route. The actual trek, she told them, would start the following day on the Saskatchewan border just south of Onion Lake, where Alberta, Saskatchewan, Onion Lake First Nation and the North Saskatchewan meet.

The Iron Horse Trail, one of three branches of the TCT's land route in Alberta, doesn't reach the border, due to problems obtaining land for the trail between the border and Heinsburg. "It will be up to your generation to make the land link," she told them. "I think your generation will make it happen."

The similarity of the word 'Sesquicentennial' to 'sasquatch' caught Thompson's imagination early on, and led to her obtaining a very interesting traveling companion, a miniature sasquatch named Aussie, who originally came from Australia. She introduced Aussie to both the high schoolers and to Daniel Peterson's Grade 4 class, and invited the younger group to join her on a sasquatch hunt, with one lucky student donning a sasquatch costume and beating its way through the bushes to peer shyly out at the students.

On Saturday, Thompson traveled to the border location, where she was sent on her journey blessed with a prayer and an honour song by an Onion Lake elder and two singers, with Denise Tournier of Duck Lake, SK, singing O Canada in English, French and Cree as part of the ceremony.

The sasquatch also came along for the ride on Sunday, when Thompson, her husband Jim Hawkins, and Edmonton friends Rose and Boyd Oberhoffner canoed east from Elk Point's Riverside Campground to Fort George and Buckingham House Historic Site and rode back to Elk Point on their bicycles, which Thompson said was "a perfect start to the tour. We have the best section of trail in the province."

SHEILA THOMPSON arrives in Elk Point on the Iron Horse Trail.

Track and Field stars shine at Elementary

Elk Point Elementary School students and staff enjoyed perfect weather for this year's Track Meet on Thursday, as students from Kindergarten to Grade 6 ran, jumped and took part in a variety of events. The Grade 4 boys run for the ribbons in the final heat of their 55 Metre, top left, while Grade 5 girls cleared the bar in the high jump, middle left. Above, Jaden Van Maarion leaps an impressive 3.54 metres in the Running Long Jump, while at left, a Grade 2 girl tackles the Standing Long Jump.

Bantam Sox play to support Fort McMurray

Absolutely everyone you talk to or read about is trying to help out in some small way and the Bantam Sox were doing their part this past weekend in helping the people from Fort Mac when they entered a tournament down in Strathmore; all the proceeds from it going to the Fort McMurray Minor Ball.

The team had the weekend off from provincial play while they get re-tired and thought it was a great idea to take part in this invitational tournament. This was not a provincial tournament, but the teams that entered do play in the Bantam AA provincial league and quite possibly could play the Sox at some time later the season.

Our boys did not play their best, they lost all of their games, but they did have a few highlights. They lost badly against the host Strathmore, played a fairly close game for most of it against Red Deer, and lost by only one run in the Beaumont game. A real nice triple by Dustyn 'Dust Pan' Pankiw who also can throw some major heat and did a fine job on the mound. His quick reaction also started a double play, with a sharp catch and throw to Cody 'the Babe' Fairbairn on first base who then turned and quickly chucked the ball to Kaiden 'K Rock' Evans Anderson at home to get the tag there for the double play. Catcher K Rock was named the MVP in that game.

Corbin 'Crusher' Ockerman also cranked a long triple and pitched, getting eight strike-outs in the game against Beaumont, he was awarded the MVP in that one.

Brayden 'Magnet' Fairbairn was named MVP in the first game against the host Strathmore. He was solid at the plate, getting on base as the lead off man.

Review Sports

Payden Wells getting on base with a couple of singles up the middle, speedy Hank 'the Tank' Rogal was very aggressive stealing bases, his brother, pee-wee-aged Charlie 'Angel' Rogal getting called up to play this weekend did very well snagging some hot grounders on short and third, Evan 'Batman' Ockerman, another pee-wee-aged player, also has no problem playing at this level and had a few really nice plays in the field.

The Peewee Boys played an exciting game on Thursday night against Cold Lake and came up with a big 18-9 win. Chase 'Big Pappi' Pankiw pitched for the first time this year and got his first strikeout. Jace 'the Stafford Streak' came in to finish the game and shut down Cold Lake in the last inning. The boys really started hitting the ball, 'Super Spencer' McNamara had a nice hit and Alex 'A-Rod' Duffee collected another RBI. Charlie 'Angel' Rogal hit his third homerun of the season, Andon 'Ace' Ballas and Evan 'Batman' Ockerman both had nice doubles at the plate. 'Danny Boy' Cardinal has hit the ball hard all season long and seems to get unlucky my when the defense makes a beautiful play on his hard hit ball. If the boys can keep this up they will set themselves up for a great season. They play two games this week, heading up to Cold Lake on Tuesday and then a rematch of the two best teams in the league when they head off to Elizabeth Settlement on Thursday.

The Mosquito No. 1 team traveled to St. Paul, losing their first game of the season to an undefeated team 13 to 6. In all fairness to the team, our guys had track and field that day and most of them were really tired and worn out, but they still stayed positive right to the end. These two teams could meet again in the playoffs.

The Mosquito No. 2 team also played against a St Paul team here at home on Tuesday night. Cash 'CC' Capjack with a huge triple brought in two runs to tie the game in the forth inning, in the fifth inning the 'Mighty Casey' Warawa making an outstanding golden glove snatch on a hot line drive to second base to keep this game tight to the final inning. In the final inning St. Paul bats pulling ahead by a few, then sending their ace closer to the mound who shut the door on the Sox.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week, and here's a hint, he was the greatest boxer of all time who just passed away this past weekend. "Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth." Last week's answer to "A hungry dog hunts best." - Lee Trevino

QUILTS, CRAFTS AND CONVERSATION were all on the menu at Elk Point Further Education's end-of-season Show and Tell Potluck last Thursday, with an opportunity to look back at completed projects and look forward to more fun in the coming fall sessions.

FLIPPING INTO SENIORS' WEEK - the Town of Elk Point hosted their annual Seniors' Week pancake breakfast on Sunday, with Mayor Parrish Tung and (not shown) CAO Ken Gwozdz manning the grill and recreation director Jena Colbourne and Coun. Bernice Capjack in charge of mixing. The County of St. Paul will also be saluting the seniors this week, with barbecue lunches Thursday, June 9 in Heinsburg and Friday, June 10 at the Elk Point Seniors' Recreation Centre.

OBITUARY

In Loving Memory...

Doris Kvill
1918-2016

BIOGRAPHY

KVILL - Doris Kvill passed away in the Parkview Extended Care, Elk Point, Alberta on Thursday, May 12, 2016 at the age of 97 years.

Doris leaves to mourn her passing: children: Arnold (Shirley) Kvill; Daughter-in-law: Barbara (Gordon) Welch and Gordon (Linda) Kvill; Grandchildren: Roberta (Mike) Garrity; Jodie (Dwayne) Olekson; Brent Kvill (Rochelle Maschay); Ryan (Charlene) Kvill; Amanda (Aaron) Seutter and Felicia Kvill, Great Grandchildren: Shawn (Angela) Davis, Jason Davis, Kaelan (Scott) Olivieri, Aidan Garrity, Cullan Garrity, Adelaide Kvill, Lillian Kvill, Abigail Seutter, Andrea Seutter, Esther Seutter, Katrina Seutter, Noah Lerca and Levi Lerca; Great great-grandchildren: Emerson Davis, Rowan Davis and Amelie Olivieri; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Predeceased by her husband: George Kvill, Parents: Ida and Harrison Botting; Son: Larry Kvill, Son: Floyd Kvill, Grandson: Neil Kvill and all of her siblings.

The service for Doris was held in the Marwayne Community Hall, Marwayne, Alberta on Friday, May 20, 2016 at 10:00 AM with Reverend Dr. Henry Trickey officiating.

The collage of memories were given by Shirley Kvill and Roberta Garrity.

The pianist was June Trickey.

The special music was "Amazing Grace" by Felicia Kvill, Aaron Seutter and Amanda Seutter.

The hymns were "The Church in the Wildwood" and "I come to the Garden Alone".

The active pallbearers were, Roberta Garrity, Jodie Olekson, Brent Kvill, Ryan Kvill, Amanda Seutter and Felicia Kvill. The interment was held in the Marwayne Cemetery.

Donations in memory of Doris may be made to the Marwayne Cemetery Fund or Parkview Extended Care Recreation Department.

McCaw Funeral Service Ltd., of Lloydminster, Alberta administered the funeral arrangements.

Thank You

The Kvill family would like to thank Dr. Oyeboide and Dr. Ramful, Elk Point Parkview Extended Care nurses and staff for the compassionate care shown to our mother Doris over the 13 years she was a resident, until her passing on May 12, 2016.

We would also like to thank Reverend Dr. Henry Trickey for officiating at the service and for the spiritual comfort he provided; June Trickey, for her gift of music; Felicia Kvill, Aaron and Amanda Seutter for their special music "Amazing Grace"; Shirley Kvill and Roberta Garrity for the collage of memories and all of Doris' grandchildren for being active pall bearers.

Thank you to Colleen Hozack and staff for the delicious catered lunch. A special thanks to friends and family for attending the service, and for the cards, flowers, donations and phone calls received. Your kindness is much appreciated.

We would also like to acknowledge the professional guidance received from Macaw Funeral Services.

Respectfully Doris Kvill's family.

EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHAMPIONS FOR CHILDREN include, left to right, Melissa Skarsen, Mona McGinnis, Melanie Poulin, Tammy Klatt and Colette Poitras, who have spent the past five years monitoring the developmental progress of local children, and who agreed that their findings should be portrayed to the community in the now completed mural.

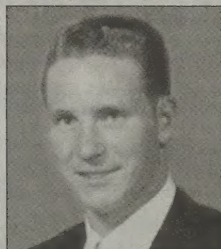

ARTISTS IN THE MAKING - had an opportunity to learn the basics of creating a work of art from the new mural's creator Herman Poulin (right) in a series of sessions that were part of Saturday afternoon's many activities.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of
Malcolm R. McFadyen

May 7, 1941 - June 13, 2015

Our thoughts are always with you
Though you have been called away,
And those who loved you dearly
Are thinking of you today and everyday.

You are not forgotten,
Malcolm
Nor will you ever be.

You had a nature that will be remembered
A heart that was more pure than gold.
Your smile and pleasant face
Are a memory to recall.

Your clever mind evokes many thoughts
For us as each day passes by.
Your memory is as treasured today
As the hour one year ago when God whispered
"Come with me".

Lovingly remembered,
Chris and Family
Myrna and Bill

Mural

Although it was originally considered to be too small a community and one that lacked in resources to be part of such a study, Elk Point "did extremely well. That long list on the mural's first panel is of the kids the first information came from, and they were part of putting together this mural."

With the study completed, the committee asked themselves, "How can we portray what we learned and share it with the community," Poulin said. After considering such projects as colouring books and others that would have limited exposure to the public, they decided to contact St. Paul artist Herman Poulin, who along with his wife were instrumental in "bringing to life the story of how children develop."

Introducing the couple, she added, "We are honoured to have worked with you for the past two years."

Urging the crowd to enjoy the mural and the afternoon, Poulin said the children's carnival activities, which included opportunities for all ages to create art with Herman Poulin, and for the youngsters to be decorated with sparkle or henna tattoos, enjoy the bounce castle and visit with Sprinkles the Clown, could become a yearly event.

"These kids are extremely important," she concluded.

Mona McGinnis told the crowd that all age groups had been a part of the mural's creation, starting with "the kids that were in kindergarten when we did the study," who did the background work on the first panel, entitled 'Social Competence.' The ECD Committee worked on 'Physical Health and Wellbeing,' a group of adults at Elk Point Further Education worked on 'Emotional Maturity,' the seniors at Heritage Lodge on 'Language and Thinking Skills' and the Elk Point Outreach School students on 'Communication Skills and General Knowledge.'

Each panel, with its artwork framed in puzzle-piece-shaped segments, lists the names of those who did the background painting, with Herman Poulin creating the design, supervising the process and adding the details and finishing touches.

"It's a very emotional day," seeing the project completed at last, she noted,

McGinnis pointed out an interesting detail: in the first panel, the hand of a child is holding a piece of a puzzle, while in the last panel, the hand of a senior is holding an iPad, which in its own way could be puzzling to that senior, signifying that life is a never-ending process of learning new things.

In January, when staff and students at St. Paul Alternate Education Centre (SPAEC) and Elk Point Outreach School (EPOS) began planning the 2016 school graduation ceremony, there were about 10 students expected to graduate.

Fast-forward about six months later, and it was standing room only at Reunion Station on Thursday afternoon, as 19 graduates were included on the graduating list, with the majority in attendance for the ceremony.

"If you look around you today, it's a little crowded," said SPAEC Principal Andrea Austin.

Before handing out the students' diplomas, Austin offered a few words to those in attendance. She mentioned the students' chosen theme, "Stay humble and kind," was very fitting.

"It's a simple but strong message," she added. She reminded students to always treat others with kindness, and "to be strong, but not rude . . . Be confident, but not arrogant."

SPERD trustee Christopher Cook also spoke to the graduates, offering congratulations to each one of them. Gloria McGilvery, a representative from Saddle Lake Education, spoke to students following the presentation of the eagle feathers. She explained that the eagle feathers are given to young people to signify that they have indeed worked to reach the special occasion, and the "sacred" day being celebrated.

While introducing this year's valedictorian, Cassidy Zahar was acknowledged for her strong work ethic, and for being a responsible citizen who has shown "maturity beyond her years."

When speaking to her fellow graduates, Zahar recalled how she came to SPAEC as a very shy and quiet student, and it was only within the last few months that she really got to know some of the other students.

She also offered a special thanks to the many people who have helped the graduates achieve success - teachers, administrations, parents and guardians.

Behind each graduate, there has been a team of people, said Zahar, and now it is time for the graduates to return the favour, move forward in life and make the world a better place.

The afternoon celebration wrapped up with awards being handed out. The Most Improved Award for SPAEC went to Savon Redcrow-Crane, and for EPOS it went to Alyssa Maltais.

This year's SPAEC graduates are: Noah Alook, Andria Badry, Shalonda Cardinal, Linden Cardinal-Redcrow, Annabell Crane, Tristan Mahe, Jacob Proctor-Ladouceaur, Ricky Jackson, Windyboy Makokis, Savon Redcrow-Crane, Teressa Steinhauer, Ethan Wahsatnow, and Cassidy Zahar.

This year's EPOS graduates are: Brandon Baird, Chantal Bye, Omar Csurdi, Alyssa Maltais, Cole Savoie, and Dylan Schell.
